REV CALVIN BAILEY, pastor of the First Baptist Church, proved again he is no slouch at story telling when he spun this one at a recent civic club luncheon:

"Elnie, Mene, Mini and Mo were four crows sitting in a tree observing Farmer Smith plowing into a nearby field. Suddenly Farmer Smith left his plow to go to the house, leaving a bucket swinging on the handle of his plow.

"The four crows flew down to see what was in the bucket. Lighting on the plow handle, they found the pail was full of prunes. So, being hungry, they proceeded to eat their fill.

"Then Elnie flew away, dropping dead some 100 yards from the plow. Mene, Mini and Mo followed suit, each falling dead from their overgorging feat.

"The moral of this story is: Never fly off the handle when you are full of prunes!"

PERFUME is nice as date bait, women think. But one of the fair sex, Grace V. Watkins, comes up with this memo to perfumers:

If you desire expanding sales, Remember, gentlemen, that males are vastly more excited by the scent of pudding, cake and pie than by the most exotic whiff of jungle orchid, or a sniff of pink narcissus from Samoa. And so next season why not show a new line of perfumes with a label related to the dinner table:

"Dream of Grandma's Gingerbread."

"Cherry Cobbler Daring Red."

"Roasted Duck of Tender Age."

"Stuffing Riotous with Sage."

And top your ad with flashing head:

"Fair Maid, If You Desire to Wed, Use Our Perfumes and You Will Be En Route to the M.R.S. Degree!"

EUDORA HAWKINS, public service department employee of the West Texas Utilities Company, with headquarters in Abilene, was a pleasant and entertaining speaker at last Wednesday's luncheon meeting of the Hamlin Rotary Club. She spoke on "Living Better Electrically," and showed some slides giving previews of marvelous new electric appliances of the future.

Among other things during her talk she made an observation that seemed commonplace:

"Why is it," she remarked, "that whenever we turn off a light switch on one side of a room, and start for the door on the other side of the room, all the furniture moves to the center of the room or aisles, and all the tables suddenly grow seven new legs that sprout out over the room?"

Before she said that, we just thought we were just a stumbling, blundering fellow in the dark in a class to ourselves.

WE LIFT the following interesting little story from a recent issue of The First Methodist News, publication of the local church of which Ed Robb is the shepherd. It deserves wider circulation, Ed:

On Teddy's birthday his father took him to the pet shop to select a puppy. The boy spent more than half an hour looking over the assorted canines on display.

"I'll take that one," he finally decided.

"Which one?" asked his father, teaching the pack.

Teddy pointed to a mongrel with tail eagerly wagging. "The one with the happy ending!"

MORE SQUIBS from the Barbs column of Hal Cochran that deserve reprinting in this pot of cauldron follow:

A scientist says this is the age of insects. We hope he enjoyed his picnic.

Four people in the same family wanting to read any magazine at the same time sort of makes it a scrap-book.

Pain, says a doctor, strikes a body at its weakest point. Think how many headaches we have.

A scientist says one tear can destroy a million bacteria. Maybe that's why so many people are crying about the flu.

It's funny how a man can become successful because his wife has a cool, level head on her shoulders.

The average American takes over 18,000 steps a day, which is another reason for the expression "hot dogs."

SON HELD IN NORTH KOREA—Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hobbs of Arthur City, scan a newspaper for word about their son, Willis P. Hobbs, the pilot of a Korean Airlines plane which was forced to land in Communist-held North Korea. Mrs. Hobbs is postmistress of Arthur City.

Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook Urges Parents to Visit Their Schools

In connection with the observance next week by the Hamlin school system of Public Schools Week, Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook makes the following statement:

March 3-8, by proclamation of the governor of Texas, is Public Schools Week in Texas, and it will afford Hamlin residents an excellent opportunity to go into the classrooms and form their own opinions of the character and quality of performance their dollars have purchased. I think they will come away convinced, as we are, that Hamlin has a good school system and a sensible educational balance in a time when the schools in general are being subjected to widespread criticism.

No one visit or a dozen visits to the schools in our community can afford a penetrating survey of aims and accomplishments, but the citizens' appearances can give more than a casual impression of modern education and of what is being attempted in basic instruction and the diversity of studies. Public Schools Week will provide an occasion for the inspection of

Proclamation by Governor Daniel Of Public School Week

Austin, Texas,

GREETINGS:

Public Schools Week is a special time set aside each year in which to place increased emphasis on our public schools. Parent visitation is encouraged, and the citizens of our communities are urged to take an active interest in the school systems and to cooperate with the respective school boards, superintendents, principals and teachers in an effort to make Texas public schools the finest in the nation.

Today, more than ever before, the importance of our schools is being realized by an awakened nation. Education, both in scientific and liberal arts fields, has taken on a new perspective. However, with all the rush to train scientists and place satellites in outer space, it is important to remember that our public schools will furnish our leaders of tomorrow with the basic human, moral and spiritual foundations necessary for more advanced training and knowledge.

Therefore, I, as governor of Texas, do hereby designate the week of March 3-7, 1958, as

PUBLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

In Texas, and urge each citizen to recognize the tremendous importance of our public schools.

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this 15th day of January, 1958.

PRICE DANIEL,
Governor of Texas.

An outstanding artist, Dobson uses chalk artistry in an unusual way in his meetings. An interesting and unique speaker, his sermons are scripturally sound and fundamental, says Hanna.

His wife, who travels with him, has charge of the congregational singing and specializes in vocal solos.

TEXANS PAY ONE-FOURTH OF INCOME IN TAXES

In 1956 Texans paid a total of $3,800,000,000 in taxes, a sum equal to one-fourth of their personal income for that year. Federal taxes amounted to $2,600,000,000 or 68 per cent of the total. State taxes were $619,000,000 or 17 per cent; local taxes were $537,000,000 or 15 per cent.

These facts are contained in the first research staff report made for the Texas State Tax Study Commission to provide it with facts upon which to base its report to the 1959 Legislature. This commission was created by the 1957 Legislature to conduct a comprehensive study of the entire state and local tax structure. Other salient facts brought out in the report are:

1. The total 1956 tax bill averaged $420 for each man, woman and child in Texas.
2. State and local taxes in Texas totaled $1,200,000,000 in 1956 as compared with some $365,000,000 in 1946 and $853,000,000 in 1950.
3. In 1946 the average per person was $28.90 in state taxes and $24.70 in local taxes. By 1956 the per person average was $69.30 of state taxes and $60.20 of local taxes.
4. Property tax collections account for about 90 per cent of Texas local revenues. The state, however, has in recent years shifted toward greater reliance on selective sales taxes (gasoline, cigarettes, alcoholic beverages, motor vehicles, etc.), severance taxes (on oil, gas and sulphur), and business taxes. Today only about five per cent of state tax revenue comes from property.

5. Over the past 25 years the Texas tax structure has changed significantly. In 1932, local government raised two-thirds of the combined state and local revenue. By 1940 the state and local division was equal. When World War II ended, state government was collecting 54 per cent and local governments 46 per cent. This ratio has continued unchanged.

Senator William S. Fly of Victoria is chairman of the Tax Study Commission. Representative Frates Seeligson of San Antonio is vice chairman. John McKee of Dallas is secretary. Other members are Senators Otis Lock of Lufkin and David Ratliff of Stamford, Representatives John A. Huebner Sr. of Bay City and Richard Slack of Pecos, and Hugo Loewenstern of Amarillo and John R. Stockton of Austin. Six members of the Texas Research League's professional staff have been made available to form to commission's own staff.

The Best for the Least

The reconvened Congress has plenty of business on its hands. It is flooded with proposed laws touching on every conceivable phase of the national life. The problem, so to speak, is to separate the wheat from the chaff of possible legislation.

In the domestic field, a series of laws relating to transportation should be given a top spot on the agenda.

The primary purpose of this legislative effort—which has the full support of farm and business organizations, top men in the government, newspapers and magazines throughout the country, and all manner of other groups—is to get rid of outmoded regulatory policies and philosophies which are a hang-over from the days when the railroads had a virtual monopoly of commercial transportation.

For instance, if a railroad wants to charge a lower rate for doing a job than is charged by a competitor it frequently finds that it is not allowed to—on the grounds that this would take business away from the competitor. That is much as if a store was denied the right to cut prices because business would be taken away from another store down the street.

These proposed laws would give each and every form of domestic transportation the opportunity to compete on a fair and equitable basis—and to make the most of their own special advantages. That means the public would get the best of service at the lowest cost.

Nuggets of Thought

So long as we love we serve. So long as we are loved by others we are indispensable; and no man is useless while he has a friend.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

Associate with men of good quality if you esteem your own reputation; for it is better to be alone than in bad company.—George Washington.

A man in earnest finds means, or, if he cannot find, creates them.—William E. Channing
Mankind will be God-governed in proportion as God's government becomes apparent, the golden rule utilized, and the rights of man and the liberty of conscience held sacred.—Mary Baker Eddy.

The will of the people is the only legitimate foundation of any government, and to protect its free expansion should be our first duty.—Thomas Jefferson.

That is the most perfect government under which a wrong to the humblest is an affront to all.—Solon

Taking Stock of Failures

Albert Einstein was frequently asked why scientific advances always seem to outdistance progress in the art of human relationships. Newspaper men especially would solicit his opinion on this matter, and the great scientist always had this answer ready:

"Physics," he would say, "is not nearly so difficult a science as politics; and that is why we know more about science than we do about getting along with each other."

The beginning of a new year is traditionally the time to take stock of the successes and failures of the previous year and set the goals for the twelve months just ahead.

Let us join in the fervent prayer and hope that 1958 will be a year of understanding between men, marking the start of an era of eternal peace and universal justice. May this be the year when peace on earth and goodwill to all men will become at last a reality permanently.

Editorial of the Week

KEEPING EDUCATION IN LINE

Henry Ford, whose skill put the automobile on a mass production basis, was a mechanic. The Wright brothers, who opened the door to the air age, were bicycle makers. Thomas A. Edison, whose numerous inventions enriched life in so many ways, was a telegraph operator at the age of 15.

These facts seem pertinent to the present tendency to put all the education emphasis on training scientists and technological experts to keep abreast of Soviet Russia in the ballistics race.

There is, of course, strong validity behind demands for expansion of the teaching of science and mathematics in our high schools and colleges. Yet we must not fall into the error of trying to measure the value of education solely in terms of the number and caliber of the missile men it produces. For the purposes of education are much broader than this. We need better scientists, yes, but also more men and women trained to use their talents in intellectual, cultural and spiritual pursuits.

Moreover, in our educational system as elsewhere, we must continue to preserve the conditions—the opportunities, the incentives and the climate of freedom—that have enabled the Fords, Wright and Edisons to put their genius to work for the progress and betterment of mankind.—Grt

"It's hard to say," said the other, "probably the police."

Great Plains Conservation Program in Jones County Approved for Practices

The Great Plains conservation program in Jones County is ready to move. Approval by the state program committee of a list of soil stabilizing, moisture saving practices for the county was announced by George Krupala, who is leader of the Soil Conservation Service is chairman of the Jones County program committee.

Also approved were the rates at which the federal government will share the cost of installing the practices. These rates, based on average cost of the work in this county, range from 50 to 80 per cent of the total cost of installing each practice. Cost-share rates for Jones County had been worked out by the county program committee and submitted to the state program committee, which is headed by State Conservationist H. N. Smith as chairman.

Purpose of the Great Plains conservation program, Krupala explained, is to develop an agriculture that resists the weather extremes that are a constant hazard in the Plains area. This will contribute to a more stable economy.

Foundation of the program is a complete soil and water conservation plan for each farm or ranch. The farmer or rancher agrees to establish all needed measures in his plan within a period of not less than three nor more than 10 years.

Krupala pointed out that when the farmer or rancher becomes a party to the contract, the money for the government's share of the cost is set aside for his part of the program.

Congress, in providing for the launching of the program, authorized $150,000,000 for a 10-year period, but specified that not more than $25,000,000 will be spent in any program year. Appropriation for the first kick-off year was $10,000,000. Tentative distribution of funds for Jones County has been made.

A total of 243 counties in the 10 Great Plains states has been designated by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson for the program.

Members of the county program committee, in addition to Krupala, are: Morris Nanny, FFA county supervisor; R. G. Rowell, chairman of the county ASC committee; W. H. Lehmberg, county agricultural extension agent; and J. E. Nix, supervisor of the Calumet Creek Soil Conservation District.

Here is the list of practices with cost-share rates, for Jones County:

4-H Club Party Reset For Thursday Evening

Due to bad weather, the 4-H Club country party and wiener roast scheduled for last Thursday had to be postponed.

GP-24—Constructing permanent fences as a means of protecting vegetative cover.

The Soil Conservation Service offices at Anson, Stamford, Merriel and Abilene will be glad to assist any farmer or rancher interested in the Great Plains conservation program.

Sunday Schools Attendance Hits 1,236 Last Sunday

A new high attendance record for recent months was set by the Sunday Schools of churches of Hamlin Sunday, although the figure was not as great as had been expected in observance of Hamlin-for-Christ Day. Much illness and bad weather and road conditions kept many regular attendants of the Sunday Schools away. The 1,236 total for Sunday was 79 more than the previous week's total, and 134 more than the year ago figure.

Attendance, by churches, for February 23, February 16 and a year ago follows:

Upswing in Numbers of Livestock in Country Revealed in USDA Releases

Livestock numbers reported by the U. S. Department of Agriculture in the annual inventory released at Fort Worth this week reveal the upswing in numbers of sheep and goats, and stable numbers of cattle, in Texas reflect the improved pasture situation, points out Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald, in his weekly market summary. His release continues:

The estimate reveals that on January 1, 1958, Texas had about the same number of cattle as a year ago, the numbers of stock sheep were up five per cent to a total of 4,700,000 head. Texas goat population was up two per cent with an estimated figure of 864,000 head.

For the nation the cattle population was believed to be 93,967,000, which was about one per cent below the 94,502,000 a year earlier. Milk cows, two years old or older, totaled 22,357,000, against 22,916,000 a year earlier.

Hog numbers were estimated at 51,559,000, practically unchanged from a year ago when some 51,703,900 were on farms. Sheep were estimated at 51,559,000, up two per cent from a year ago. Stock sheep were estimated at 27,390,000, up three per cent from a year ago.

Horses and mules declined five and six per cent respectively, with a total of 3,348,000 on farms January 1, 1958.

Supplies of cattle and calves were of moderate proportions at Fort Worth and all around the major market circle Monday. Trade at Fort Worth was fully steady to strong on fed cattle, bulls and high grade slaughter calves and stockers. Plain stockers and medium and lower grade calves and cows showed some weakness before the session was completed.

Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings cashed at $24 to $27, and common and medium offerings cleared at $16 to $24. Fat cows brought $16.50 to $18.50, and canners and cutters drew $11 to $17. Bulls sold mostly from $14 to $19, a few top quality individuals to $19.50.

Good and choice slaughter calves at $24 to $27, and common and medium offerings cashed at $17 to $23. Cull sorts cashed at $14 to $17. Medium and good stocker steer calves sold from $22 to $27.50, with few choice to $28. Heifer calves ranged from $25.75 downward. Stocker steer yearlings of medium and good quality sold from $20 to $25.50, and some choice 578-pound dehorned yearling steers in a load lot cashed at $27.

Hogs were steady to 50 cents higher at Fort Worth Monday, and sows were steady to 25 cents higher. Choice butcher hogs topped at $21.50 to $22, and equalled the best prices achieved last week. The $22 top equalled the best prices at Fort Worth since last September. Medium and good hogs sold from $18 to $21. Sows sold from $17.50 to $18.25, with virtually all weights of sows getting $17.50 to $18 as the sausage makers sought supplies.

Sheep and lambs were in the largest supply in some months at Fort Worth Monday, and packers were burdened with heavy supplies of direct and prices turned downward. Prices ranged from barely steady to as much as $1 lower, with heavy lambs and yearlings scaling above 100 pounds under the most severe pressure. Half-fat and rough quality offerings shared the long end of the drop along with the heavyweights. Small numbers of good feeders was the principal factor in relatively quiet trade on those types.

Good and choice slaughter lambs cashed at $21 to $23.50, the higher figure on lambs with No. 1 or fall shorn pelts. A few choice milk lambs cashed at $24. A few woolled old crop lambs sold around $22.50 down. Yearling muttons weighing 110 pounds and with No. 1 pelts sold for $20.50. A few aged slaughter ewes sold from $9 to $10. Slaughter goats cashed at $7 to $7.50. A few small lots of medium to fairly good feeder lambs cashed at $19 to $21.50.

Market observers at Fort Worth considered the setback in price in heavyweight lambs and yearlings in the Monday trade a forerunner of things to come as the season advances. Topping out the heavier lambs and marketing them now will probably be profitable, since ordinarily lambs which weigh above 105 pounds are discounted considerably under the more desirable weights of 85 to 100 pounds of yearling lambs.

Easter is early—April 6 this year—and old crop lambs in many cases were fairly heavy before going into pastures and fields. Some of these are already appearing that weigh over 130 pounds, which packers say is far too heavy to bring top carcass prices.

Three boys were boasting about the earning capacity of their fathers.

The first said: "My father can write a few lines and call it poetry and sell it for $10."

"My father," said the second, "can draw a few lines, add a few dots and call it music. He sells it for $25."

The third scoffed at the others, saying, "That's nothing! My father is a preacher. He can write a few lines, say them in church, and it takes six men to carry the money down the aisles."

LET'S BE PRACTICAL

Prospective Groom — "Lucille, darling, now that we're going to get married, you should give up your $40-a-week job."

Intended Bride — "Certainly, my sweetheart. Of course, I will."

Prospective Groom — "The way I figure it, you're gonna have to make at least $60."

NOTICED THINGS

A group of third graders visited the art museum for the first time. There they saw a French eighteenth century drawing room correct in every detail. The teacher asked them later what about this room impressed them most.

Said one little girl: "No television."

Leon Thurman Makes Formal Statement on Representative Race

Leon Thurman, who recently announced as a candidate for the office of state representative, presents the following formal statement:

To the citizens of the 85th Representative District of Texas: I am announcing my candidacy for representative of the 85th District of Texas, which includes Jones, Stonewall, Dickens and King Counties.

To those who do not know me, I would like to give you something of my background: I have lived most of my life in Jones County, with only a few years out to serve by country in World War II. I was reared on a farm between Stamford and Anson. I am 42 years of age. My wife is the former Geneva Albright of Hamlin. We have two children, a boy 11 and a girl eight.

I finished high school in Anson and have a BBA degree from Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene. I studied law and in 1956, was admitted to practice, having passed the bar examination. I am now a practicing attorney.

At the present time I am serving as district clerk of Jones County. The people of Jones County have been very kind to me in letting me have the opportunity to serve them in this capacity, and now I am asking them for a promotion—that is, to elect me their state representative.

I have tried to be active in all civic organizations in my community. I have served as worshipful master of the local Masonic Lodge; served as district deputy grand master; served as president of the local Lions Club; served as commander of the American Legion; and as president of the Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church. At present I am president of the board of trustees of Anson General Hospital.

All of my family attend the First Baptist Church in Anson, of which I am a deacon.

If the people of the 85th Representative District of Texas see fit to elect me their representative I will try to be fair and impartial in all of my dealings. I will try to look after the interests of all the people of Texas, more especially the people of the 85th District. In all issues I believe there should be some study given to the people's stand taken when understood. The people are entitled to a better government possible, and it is my intention, if elected, to give them the best.

HEART SURGERY AIDS YOUNGSTER—Four-year-old Alan Buck, shown here with Douglas B. Marshall of Houston, chairman of the 1958 Texas Heart Fund, is one of scores of children and adults whose lives have been changed by open heart operations performed by Dallas and Houston surgeons in the past two years. Young Alan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clint Buck of Houston, now has a normal life expectancy after successfully undergoing heart surgery at the Texas Medical Center in Houston. More than 350 similar instances of open heart surgery in Dallas and Houston by Texas physicians in the past two years have restored heart victims to normal or near-normal lives, according to officials of the Texas Heart Association. Contributions made to the current month-long Texas Heart Fund will be used to expand scientific research and professional education programs of the THA and the American Heart Association, as well as by Heart Association chapters in Texas for their community heart programs, it was emphasized by Heart Fund Chairman Marshall.

I will attempt to see each one personally, but knowing some will be missed, please take this as a personal solicitation of your vote and influence. And any consideration given me will be greatly appreciated.

I will at all times appreciate any comment anyone may have regarding new laws and other mat-

Fungicides Mixed With Soil Help to Control Diseases

Method of mixing fungicides in the covering soil at planting can be used as an aid for cotton seedling disease control, according to Bill Lehman, county agent. This information has just been released in Progress Report 2003 from the Texas Agriculture Experiment Station.

For general use, a mixture of captan, zineb and PCNB applied as a spray or dust gives best results. This mixture can be applied as a spray or dust. As a spray, five pounds of a formulation containing 15 per cent active captan, 22.5 per cent active PCNB and 22.5 per cent active zineb applied in water at the rate of 10 gallons per acre will do a good job. As a dust, 10 pounds of a formulation containing 7.5 per cent active captan, 11.5 per cent active PCNB and 13.0 per cent active zineb applied per acre is adequate.

Every effort should be made to arrange the spray nozzles or dust applicators so that the fungicides will be mixed thoroughly in the covering soil above the seed. The fungicide covering soil method should be used in conjunction with seed treatment with an approved chemical such as ceresan 200 or panagen 15. This combination, when used with good seedbed preparation and planting procedures, will help reduce losses caused by cotton seedling disease.

Handling of Mail Provide Program At Lions Meeting

The post office department of the United States handles more than 60,000,000,000 letters every year, which is about two-thirds of all the mail of the world. This startling information was part of the presentation by a film shown at the Tuesday noon luncheon meeting of the Hamlin Lions Club at the oil mill guest house.

Bobby Crowley, chief dispatcher of the Hamlin post office, presented the program. The film, "Men, Mail and Machines," with Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield as spokesman, showed some of the major methods of handling mail in several of the big mail terminals of the nation, where modern machines and other equipment facilitate the movement of letters, newspapers and parcel post.

The film revealed that many of the post offices are greatly cramped for operation room and modern facilities.

Following the film, Crowley discussed and demonstrated some of the methods of dispatching mail in the Hamlin post office. He also answered questions about the post office service.

Next week's meeting of the Lions Club, it was announced by President Willard Jones, will be at the Hamlin High School cafeteria as part of the observance of Public Schools Week.

Common Shares for Celotex Increased

Directors of the Celotex Corporation at the annual meeting of shareholders February 18 at Chicago appointed J. H. Adams as assistant secretary and K. F. Haelsig as assistant treasurer. Both men have been associated with Celotex for more than 10 years.

Re-elected as directors for three-year terms were Henry W. Collins, Chris L. Christensen, F. A. Irvine and Albert C. Simmons Jr. All officers were re-elected.

The shareholders also approved an increase in the number of authorized common shares from 1,500,000 to 5,000,000 shares.

Reading Cited as Junior High Study Entertainment by

Students in the Hamlin Junior High School have been emphasizing reading in their work in recent weeks, say officials of the school.

Students in 7-B are studying a unit in reading devoted primarily to developing new reading skills and habits. The emphasis is placed not only on reading for comprehension, speed and accuracy, but on reading for enjoyment as well. In these days of television, radio, movies and other sources of entertainment, it behooves us to learn that reading still offers us a great source of entertainment.

Eighth graders have just completed a unit in reading designed to acquaint them with some of the great writers in literature. Among those studies were William Shakespeare, Rudyard Kipling, Alfred Lord Tennyson, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, Washington Irving and a score of others.

Next week the group will begin a study of the origin of the English language, or the correct word will be etymology. Thus, this study will be our theme for Public Schools Week. Since there is no end to English itself, only a continual flow into the vast ocean of all languages, and since the English language is derived from

PUBLIC SCHOOL WEEK

Will be observed in Hamlin March 3-7. You are urged to participate.

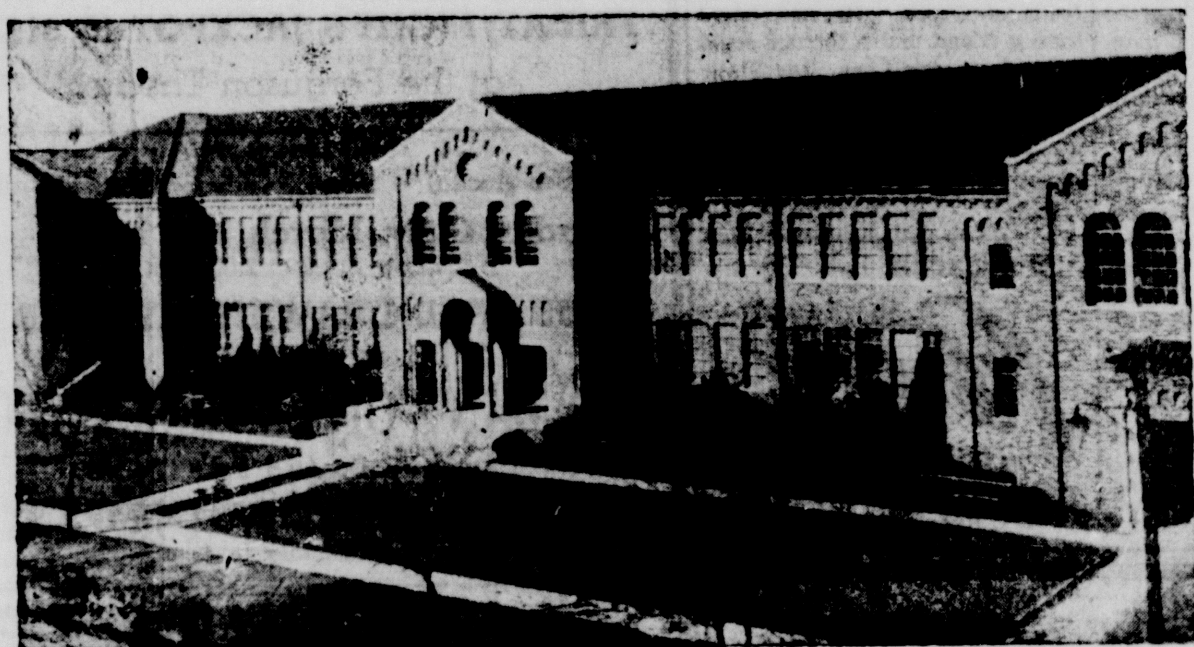

Our forefathers in their wisdom, recognizing the importance of education in the function and operation of a democracy, established the public school to make education available to all. The people of Texas declared, by the expressed terms of state constitution, "a general diffusion of knowledge being essential to the preservation of the liberties and rights of the people, it shall be the duty of the Legislature of the state to establish and make suitable provisions for the support and maintenance of an efficient system of public free schools."

All Five Hamlin Schools Will Be Open for Inspection on Thursday Evening from 6:00 to 7:30 p. m.

Following the open house, a special program will be presented under the direction of the Parent-Teacher Association beginning at 8:00 p. m. Thursday, March 6, at the Hamlin High School auditorium. School bands will be featured in a musical program, and brief talks will be made. Veteran school employees will be presented service pins. At the DePriest Colored School a program will be presented also at 2:00 p. m. Friday featuring the band and choral groups. Everybody is invited to visit the various schools and attend the programs that will point up the schools' part in the community.

The 1854 School Law provided for the first public school system in Texas. As the years passed our laws were strengthened to make sure that all children of a school age shared in this opportunity for public education. Today the importance of education is not a debatable subject.

By visiting the schools and familiarizing ourselves with the problems of teachers and students, we become more competent to safeguard and advance the institution that is so American—the public free school.

James W. Chandler Passes at Age 93 After Long Illness

Funeral services for James Walker Chandler, probably the oldest resident of Hamlin, were conducted Tuesday afternoon at the Hamlin Church of Christ at 8:00 o'clock. He was 93 years, 10 months of age.

The pioneer died Monday afternoon at 1:05 o'clock at the family residence, 229 Northwest Avenue, after an illness of more than two and one-half months.

Born April 17, 1864, in Clay County, Alabama, he was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Love Chandler. He married the former Ada Florence Hallmark in Alabama on October 16, 1892. The couple moved to this section in 1919, where he engaged in farming. He also had been employed at the Celotex Corporation for 10 years. He was a member of the Church of Christ.

Officiating at the final rites were Austin Siburt, minister of the Hamlin Church of Christ, and Bruce Proctor, minister of the Grape Street Church of Christ in Abilene.

Burial was in the Hamlin East

John V. Howard Named President By Rotary Club

John V. Howard, Hamlin grocer, was elected president of the Hamlin Rotary Club for the new fiscal year beginning July 1, when members of that club met last Wednesday noon in their weekly luncheon session at the oil mill guest house.

Other new officers elected were: Gene Prewitt, who becomes vice president; and Tommy Davis, secretary-treasurer. Rev. Edmund Robb was elected a director. Hold-over directors are Earl Smith, R. L. McClung and C. F. Cook.

Special announcement was given the annual district conference, to be held at Mineral Wells on March 9 and 10.

Eudora Hawkins of the public service department of West Texas Utilities Company headquarters at Abilene, gave a program on "Living Better Electrically." She showed slides that gave previews of phenomenal electrical appliances of the future, including electronic dirt collectors, waterless laundries, cordless lamps and luminescent panels for homes.

She pointed out that the United States generates and uses more electricity than the next seven countries of the world combined.

R. L. McClung was named chairman of an arrangements committee for a proposed Farmers Day, to be sponsored by the Rotary Club in March or April.

Rev. Calvin Bailey made an announcement about the Hamlin-for-Christ Day, staged Sunday.

Besides Miss Hawkins and Rev. Bailey, other guests at the Wednesday luncheon included Bill Nesbitt of Snyder, W. M. Blackburn of Stamford, J. W. McDaniell of Abilene, Rev. Miles B. Hays of Ardmore, Oklahoma, Stanley Wilson of Abilene, Ned Moore, and Lanier Foster, Junior Rotarian for February.

Major subjects covered were current trends in life insurance needs as well as advanced underwriting techniques for the modern planning of life insurance estates. Jim King attended from Hamlin.

JAMES GARNER (center), "Maverick" himself, is seen in his first starring big screen role in Warner Bros. "Daddy's Rangers," a thrilling action drama of World War II, which plays Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at the Ferguson Theater. The film, produced by Martin Rackin and directed by William A. Wellman, also stars Etchika Choureau and Jack Warden.

Cotton Growers Find Encouragement In Decline of Carry-Over of Staple

Cotton growers of the Hamlin territory as well as those of the rest of the Cotton Belt will find encouragement in the announcement that the supply of cotton in the United States during the 1957-58 marketing year is estimated at about 23,000,000 bales. This is 4,600,000 bales smaller than the record of last year and the smallest supply since 1953-54.

The carry-over at the end of the present marketing year, August 1, 1958, is expected to be around 9,000,000 bales, according to John G. McHaney, extension economist. This is the smallest since 1953 and 5,700,000 bales below the record high of 1956 and 2,000,000 smaller than that on August 1, 1957.

Disappearance of cotton during the present season is estimated at about 14,100,000 bales, says McHaney. This is 2,100,000 bales smaller than the 16,200,000 bales last year.

In 1956-57 domestic mill consumption of cotton declined to 9,200,000 bales the previous season and it is estimated that this year's figure will be about the same, points out the economist. So mill consumption will probably be the smallest since 1953-54.

Exports during the 1957-58 marketing year are expected to be about 5,500,000 bales—more than 2,000,000 bales below the high exports of 1956-57, McHaney says. This compares with the 1953-39 average of about 5,300,000 bales.

As of November 8, 1957, continues the economist, the U. S.

government had allotted about $254,000,000 to finance cotton exports for the year ending June 30, 1958. If completely used, these funds will finance the export of about 1,700,000 bales, as compared with exports of about 2,700,000 financed with $406,000,000 last year. However, he adds, additional funds may be made available before the end of the current fiscal year.

In 1957, farmers produced an estimated 11,700,000 running bales from the smallest acreage since 1878 and allotments during 1958 are 37,006 acres smaller than the 1957 allotment. Meanwhile, man-made fiber consumption increases annually, concludes the economist.

LEARN BY DOING.

For more than half a century Texas 4-H Club members have been learning to do by doing. While their programs of demonstrations and activities have been changed with the times, the basic principle of uniting Head, Heart, Hands and Health for the betterment of their homes, schools, churches and communities has remained a major objective of the 4-H organization. March 1-8 is National 4-H Club Week.

Clint Walker Stars In Western Film at Ferguson Theater

One of the great success stories of Hollywood during the recent years has been the sudden rise to fame of Clint Walker, who came out of relative obscurity to become the top Western star on television in Warner Brothers highly rated "Cheyenne" series. Walker will be seen starring in Warner's "Fort Dobbs" Sunday and Monday at the Ferguson Theater.

In September, 1955, Warner Brothers launched the "Cheyenne" series with Walker in the starring and title role. The show was an immediate success with the public. It zoomed to the top of the ratings and has stayed there, beating out all opposition week after week.

As a result of his tremendous pulling power on television, Walker was awarded by Jack L. Warner the starring role in Warner Brothers' "Fort Dobbs," marking his debut in a motion picture feature production.

Walker, who stands six feet six inches, weighs 235 pounds and looks every inch a Western hero, was a gun-totin' deputy sheriff, Texas cowhand, sailor and silver prospector before he hit the jackpot as an actor. In November, 1950, finding prospects in his native Alton, Illinois, for a career almost nil, Walker packed his family and headed for the oil fields of Texas. He had heard from a friend that a fortune could be made in the Lone Star State, especially around the town of Brownwood. In 1952 the family moved to Long Beach, California, where he got a job as a deputy sheriff.

Being a column in which the publisher just "blows off the steam."

REV CALVIN BAILEY, pastor of the First Baptist Church, proved again he is no slouch at story telling when he spun this one at a recent civic club luncheon:

"Einie, Mene, Mini and Mo were four crows sitting in a tree observing Farmer Smith plowing into a nearby field. Suddenly Farmer Smith left his plow to go to the house, leaving a bucket swinging on the handle of his plow. The four crows flew down to see what was in the bucket. Lighting on the plow handle, they found the pail was full of prunes. So, being hungry, they proceeded to eat their fill.

"Then Einie flew away, dropping dead some 100 yards from the plow. Mene, Mini and Mo followed suit, each falling dead from their overgorging feat. The moral of this story is: Never fly off the handle when you are full of prunes!"

PERFUME is nice as date bait, women think. But one of the fair sex, Grace V. Watkins, comes up with this memo to perfumers:

If you desire expanding sales. Remember, gentlemen, that males are vastly more excited by the scent of pudding, cake and pie than by the most exotic whiff of jungle orchid, or a sniff of pink narcissus from Samoa. And so next season why not show new line of perfumes with a label related to the dinner table:

"Dream of Grandma's Gingerbread," "Cherry Cobbler Daring Red," "Roasted Duck of Tender Age," "Stuffing Riotous with Sage," And top your ad with flashing head:

"Fair Maid, if You Desire to Wed, Use Our Perfumes and You Will Be En Route to the M.R.S. Degree!"

EUDORA HAWKINS, public service department employee of the West Texas Utilities Company, with headquarters in Abilene, was a pleasant and entertaining speaker at last Wednesday's luncheon meeting of the Hamlin Rotary Club. She spoke on "Living Better Electrically," and showed some slides giving previews of marvelous new electric appliances of the future.

Among other things during her talk she made an observation that seemed commonplace:

"Why is it," she remarked, "that whenever we turn off a light switch on one side of a room, and start for the door on the other side of the room, all the furniture moves to the center of the room or aisles, and all the tables suddenly grow seven new legs that sprawl out over the room?"

Before she said that, we just thought we were just a stumbling, blundering fellow in the dark in a class to ourselves.

WE LEFT the following interesting little story from a recent issue of The First Methodist News, publication of the local church of which Ed Robb is the shepherd. It deserves wider circulation, Ed:

On Teddy's birthday his father took him to the pet shop to select a puppy. The boy spent more than half an hour looking over the assorted canines on display.

"I'll take that one," he finally decided.

"Which one?" asked his father, teaching the pack.

Teddy pointed to a mongrel with tail eagerly wagging. "The one with the happy ending!"

MORE SQUIBS from the Barbs column of Hal Cochran that deserve reprinting in this pot of cauldron follow:

A scientist says this is the age of insects. We hope he enjoyed his picnic.

Four people in the same family wanting to read any magazine at the same time sort of makes it a scrap-book.

Pain, says a doctor, strikes a body at its weakest point. Think how many headaches we have.

A scientist says one tear can destroy a million bacteria. Maybe that's why so many people are crying about the flu.

It's funny how a man can become successful because his wife has a cool, level head on her shoulders.

Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook Urges Parents to Visit Their Schools

In connection with the observance next week by the Hamlin school system of Public Schools Week, Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook makes the following statement:

March 3-8, by proclamation of the governor of Texas, is Public Schools Week in Texas, and it will afford Hamlin residents an excellent opportunity to go into the classrooms and form their own opinions of the character and quality of performance their dollars have purchased. I think they will come away convinced, as we are, that Hamlin has a good school system and a sensible educational balance in a time when the schools in general are being subjected to widespread criticism.

No one visit or a dozen visits to the schools in our community can afford a penetrating survey of aims and accomplishments, but the citizens' appearances can give more than a casual impression of modern education and of what is being attempted in basic instruction and the diversity of studies. Public Schools Week will provide an occasion for the inspection of the buildings in which Hamlin young people are schooled and for an insight into the qualifications of the teaching and administrative staff which have their children in charge.

In the latter respect, I think the Hamlin school system will not be found lagging. On the contrary, I believe that visitors who have the benefit of knowledge of other school systems will find the Hamlin schools firmly anchored to the proved and traditional principles of formal, basic education, yet flexible and progressive enough to reach the expanding demands of our people.

To do many things for many students, and in the process to inculcate the principles of responsible citizenship and democratic life, all without losing sight of the compellin requirement for solid fundamental learning is no inconsiderable object for any school system. Especially is this true when many of them suffer from inadequate financing and public indifference or uninformed criticism. This the observance of Public Schools Week seeks in some measure to remedy.

All Texas citizens, and particularly those who are parents of school children, should take time to visit the schools on this occasion and make a serious effort to understand the difficulties in education and the needs arising for its tremendous scope. They should talk to the teachers. It is helpful to know your teachers and to recognize their problems. They are the heart and core of the school system. No school can be better or worse than its corps of teachers.

Make it a point to visit your school during this Public Schools Week.

Special Displays Set at Schools of City for Visitors

Special displays and activities will feature open house observances at the various schools next Thursday, besides the general program at the high school Thursday evening at 8:00 o'clock. Among these activities will be:

Open house for the Primary School will be held Thursday, March 6, from 6:00 to 7:30 o'clock. Patrons and friends are invited to visit the classrooms to see the display of work done by the pupils, declares Mrs. Fred Smith, principal. Exhibits will include work in art, science, health and social studies.

Hamlin Elementary School will also conduct open house from 6:00 to 7:30 p. m., announces Odean Murphree, principal. All parents of fourth and fifth grade children are invited to visit the school at this time. Each room will be open, and visitors will see the work of pupils in different types of exhibits and demonstrations. Science and geography displays, handicrafts, written assignments and music work will be shown.

Proclamation by Governor Daniel Of Public School Week

Austin, Texas,

GREETINGS:

Public Schools Week is a special time set aside each year in which to place increased emphasis on our public schools. Parent visitation is encouraged, and the citizens of our communities are urged to take an active interest in the school systems and to cooperate with the respective school boards, superintendents, principals and teachers in an effort to make Texas public schools the finest in the nation.

Today, more than ever before, the importance of our schools is being realized by an awakened nation. Education, both in scientific and liberal arts fields, has taken on a new perspective. However, with all the rush to train scientists and place satellites in outer space, it is important to remember that our public schools will furnish our leaders of tomorrow with the basic human, moral and spiritual foundations necessary for more advanced training and knowledge.

Therefore, I, as governor of Texas, do hereby designate the week of March 3-7, 1958, as in Texas, and urge each citizen to recognize the tremendous importance of our public schools.

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this 15th day of January, 1958.

PRICE DANIEL, Governor of Texas.

Campbell has called a meeting of men of the community interested in the Little League and Pony League for next Friday, March 7, at 7:30 p. m. in the high school cafeteria, when plans will be made for the forthcoming baseball season.

Churches Report Good Response to Effort, However

The community's first Hamlin-for-Christ Day, conducted Sunday, was an outstanding success, declare officials of the Hamlin Ministerial Alliance, sponsor of the event.

Two factors tended to limit church attendance — widespread illness, and adverse weather and road conditions in the community, point out ministers of the city. However, a survey of most of the churches revealed the following facts: Total attendance for all Sunday services, including Sunday School, morning worship, youth activities and evening service, was approximately 4,638; and a total of 2,136 different persons attended one or more of these services; a number of visitors were reported in most of the churches; the spiritual tone of all services was high, with a number of conversions and new church members; every church reported increased interest in Christ and the church as a result of the campaign activities.

"It is the sincere prayer of the ministerial alliance that this special day will be but the beginning of further increases and greater interest for Christ in our community," declared Rev. Bill Hanna, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene and president of the ministers' group.

Alliance officials said special word of appreciation should be given to Calvin Bailey, procedure committee chairman; John C. Bryant, finance committee chairman; Woodrow McHugh, advertising committee chairman; and Edmund Robb, publicity committee chairman; and to The Hamlin Herald and Radio Station KDWT of Stamford for valuable advertising considerations.

DePriest Girl Cagers Play at Colorado City

Program Slated Thursday Eve in HHS Auditorium

Hundreds of men and women of the Hamlin community are expected to go back to school next week for refresher courses—all as part of the observance of Public Schools Week.

All five Hamlin schools will be open to all citizens from Monday, March 3, through Thursday evening, March 6, announces Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook, who urges parents and friends of the schools to take advantage of this special opportunity to visit and observe the facilities and type of work being done by their public schools.

Thursday evening, March 6, will be open house in all schools beginning at 6:00 p. m. After the open house there will be a program in the high school auditorium, beginning at 8:00 o'clock. The Parent-Teacher Association will have charge of the program.

Mrs. M. L. Smith, P-TA president, will call the meeting to order. Pledge of allegiance to the flag will be directed by Boy Scouts. Service will be presented by Superintendent Cook to veteran school employees.

Scheduled to get service awards will be: Ten-year awards—Mrs. J. S. Norton, Mrs. Harold Williams, B. V. Newberry, E. S. Morgan and Mrs. Barmie Smith; five-year awards: Mrs. Charles Scott, B. M. Perdue and H. E. Brown.

A musical program will follow under the direction of Mac Fullerton and Mrs. Bessie Miers. Taking part will be the Junior High School Band, Junior High School Choir and the High School Band.

J. C. Dobsons Will Lead in Revival at Church of Nazarene

Hamlin Church of the Nazarene has set March 13 through 23 as dates for the spring revival meeting. It is announced by Rev. Bill Hanna, pastor.

Visiting evangelists for the series of services will be Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Dobson of Bethany, Oklahoma, who recently reentered the field of active evangelism after holding several pastorates.

Dobson attended Centenary College at Shreveport, Louisiana, and the Art Institute of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He held pastorates at Sulphur Springs, Beaumont and San Benito. For two years he was professor of art at Bethany Nazarene College at Bethany, Oklahoma.

An outstanding artist, Dobson uses chalk artistry in an unusual way in his meetings. An interesting and unique speaker, his sermons are scripturally sound and fundamental, says Hanna.

His wife, who travels with him, has charge of the congregational singing and specialties in vocal solos.

Great Plains Conservation Program in Jones County Approved for Practices

The Great Plains conservation program in Jones County is ready to move. Approval by the state program committee of a list of soil stabilizing, moisture saving practices for the county was announced by George Krupala, who as leader of the Soil Conservation Service is chairman of the Jones County program committee.

Also approved were the rates at which the federal government will share the cost of installing the practices. These rates, based on average cost of the work in this county, range from 50 to 80 per cent of the total cost of installing each practice. Cost-share rates for Jones County had been worked out by the county program committee and submitted to the state program committee, which is headed by State Conservationist H. N. Smith as chairman.

Purpose of the Great Plains conservation program, Krupala explained, is to develop an agriculture that resists the weather extremes that are a constant hazard in the Plains area. This will contribute to a more stable economy.

Foundation of the program is a complete soil and water conservation plan for each farm or ranch. The farmer or rancher agrees to establish all needed measures in his plan within a period of not less than three nor more than 10 years.

Krupala pointed out that when the farmer or rancher becomes a party to the contract, the money for the government's share of the cost is set aside for his part of the program.

Congress, in providing for the launching of the program, authorized $150,000,000 for a 10-year period, but specified that not more than $25,000,000 will be spent in any program year. Appropriation for the first kick-off year was $10,000,000. Tentative distribution of funds for Jones County has been made.

A total of 243 counties in the 10 Great Plains states has been designated by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson for the program.

Members of the county program committee, in addition to Krupala, are: Morris Nanny, FFA county supervisor; R. G. Rowell, chairman of the county ASC committee; W. H. Lehmsberg, county agricultural extension agent; and J. E. Nix, supervisor of the California Creek Soil Conservation District.

Here is the list of practices with cost-share rates, for Jones County:

GP-1—Initial establishment of a permanent vegetative cover as a part of an improved cropping system: 80 per cent.

GP-2—Reseeding of rangeland: 70 per cent.

GP-3—Establishment of permanent sod waterways: 80 per cent.

GP-4—Constructing terraces: 80 per cent.

GP-5—Constructing diversion terraces: 70 per cent.

GP-6—Constructing spreader ditches: 70 per cent.

GP-7—Constructing ponds: 50 per cent.

GP-8—Brush control: 50 per cent.

GP-9—Constructing permanent fences as a means of protecting vegetative cover.

The Soil Conservation Service offices at Anson, Stamford, Menard and Abilene will be glad to assist any farmer or rancher interested in the Great Plains conservation program.

4-H Club Party Reset For Thursday Evening

Due to bad weather, the 4-H Club country party and winter roast scheduled for last Thursday had to be postponed.

The party will be held this Thursday, February 27, beginning at 6:30 p. m. Place for the picnic is at the Haskell community at the church picnic grounds.

After supper the group will sing songs, play games and hold relay races. The club with the largest attendance will receive a prize.

The event was planned by the 4-H Club committee of the Extension Council. Birger Haterius is chairman of the committee.

Sunday Schools Attendance Hits 1,236 Last Sunday

A new high attendance record for recent months was set by the Sunday Schools of churches of Hamlin Sunday, although the figure was not as great as had been expected in observance of Hamlin-for-Christ Day. Much illness and bad weather and road conditions kept many regular attendants of the Sunday Schools away. The 1,236 total for Sunday was 79 more than the previous week's total, and 134 more than the year ago figure.

Attendance, by churches, for February 23, February 16 and a year ago follows:

TEXANS PAY ONE-FOURTH OF INCOME IN TAXES

In 1956 Texans paid a total of $3,800,000,000 in taxes, a sum equal to one-fourth of their personal income for that year. Federal taxes amounted to $2,600,000,000 or 68 per cent of the total. State taxes were $619,000,000 or 17 per cent; local taxes were $537,000,000 or 15 per cent.

These facts are contained in the first research staff report made for the Texas State Tax Study Commission to provide it with facts upon which to base its report to the 1959 Legislature. This commission was created by the 1957 Legislature to conduct a comprehensive study of the entire state and local tax structure. Other salient facts brought out in the report are:

- The total 1956 tax bill averaged $420 for each man, woman and child in Texas.
- State and local taxes in Texas totaled $1,200,000,000 in 1956 as compared with some $365,000,000 in 1946 and $853,000,000 in 1950.
- In 1946 the average per person was $28.99 in state taxes and $24.70 in local taxes. By 1956 the per person average was $69.30 of state taxes and $60.20 of local taxes.
- Property tax collections account for about 90 per cent of Texas local revenues. The state, however, has in recent years shifted toward greater reliance on selective sales taxes (gasoline, cigarettes, alcoholic beverages, motor vehicles, etc.), severance taxes (on oil, gas and sulphur), and business taxes. Today only about five per cent of state tax revenue comes from property.

5. Over the past 25 years the Texas tax structure has changed significantly. In 1932, local government raised two-thirds of the combined state and local revenue. By 1940 the state and local division was equal. When World War II ended, state government was collecting 54 per cent and local governments 46 per cent. This ratio has continued unchanged.

Senator William S. Fly of Victoria is chairman of the Tax Study Commission. Representative Frates Seeliger of San Antonio is vice chairman. John McKee of Dallas is secretary. Other members are Senators Otis Lock of Lufkin and David Ratliff of Stamford, Representatives John A. Huebner Sr. of Bay City and Richard Slack of Pecos, and Hugo Loewenstern of Amarillo and John R. Stockton of Austin. Six members of the Texas Research League's professional staff have been made available to form to commission's own staff.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

Events of 20 years ago in the Hamlin community were chronicled in the following news briefs, reprinted from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated February 25, 1938:

Jones County farmers have received 762 soil conservation checks totaling $92,491.44 which represents 558 applications. This represents only about 60 per cent of the applications.

Five inches of snow fell in the Hamlin community over the weekend. The snow came following six inches of rain the week before. Hamlin Bankers W. C. Russell, Tate May, Coy Fielder, Ray Williamson and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ezell attended the Seventh District Bankers Association convention at Fort Worth Tuesday.

Betty Myrtle Routh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Routh of Hamlin, was on the honor roll of Mary Hardin-Baylor College, where she is a sophomore student.

Villa Rountree spent last week visiting with Jonnie Parle Harmon at Midland.

The Best for the Least

The reconvened Congress has plenty of business on its hands. It is flooded with proposed laws touching on every conceivable phase of the national life. The problem, so to speak, is to separate the wheat from the chaff of possible legislation.

In the domestic field, a series of laws relating to transportation should be given a top spot on the agenda.

The primary purpose of this legislative effort—which has the full support of farm and business organizations, top men in the government, newspapers and magazines throughout the country, and all manner of other groups—is to get rid of outmoded regulatory policies and philosophies which are a hang-over from the days when the railroads had a virtual monopoly of commercial transportation.

For instance, if a railroad wants to charge a lower rate for doing a job than is charged by a competitor it frequently finds that it is not allowed to—on the grounds that this would take business away from the competitor. That is much as if a store was denied the right to cut prices because business would be taken away from another store down the street.

These proposed laws would give each and every form of domestic transportation the opportunity to compete on a fair and equitable basis—and to make the most of their own special advantages. That means the public would get the best of service at the lowest cost.

Taking Stock of Failures

Albert Einstein was frequently asked why scientific advances always seem to outdistance progress in the art of human relationships. Newspaper men especially would solicit his opinion on this matter, and the great scientist always had this answer ready:

"Physics," he would say, "is not nearly so difficult a science as politics; and that is why we know more about science than we do about getting along with each other."

The beginning of a new year is traditionally the time to take stock of the successes and failures of the previous year and set the goals for the twelve months just ahead.

Let us join in the fervent prayer and hope that 1958 will be a year of understanding between men, marking the start of an era of eternal peace and universal justice. May this be the year when peace on earth and good-will to all men will become at last a reality permanently!

TEN YEARS AGO.

Among goings-on in the Hamlin community 10 years ago included the following, taken from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated February 26, 1948:

Hamlin Future Farmers of America boys took a big share of the awards in last Saturday's annual Jones County Club Boys' Livestock Show held at Hamlin.

A civil suit asking alleged damages of $114,675 was filed Friday afternoon in 104th District Court at Anson by L. O. Carpenter of Hamlin against Hamlin Sand & Gravel Company. Carpenter filed the suit in behalf of his 10-year-old son, Aubrey Lewis Carpenter, who fell into equipment at the pit nine miles north of Hamlin last year.

C. R. Angel, cashier of the Farmers & Merchants National Bank of Hamlin, was chosen secretary of the West Texas Bankers Association last week in convention at Fort Worth.

FIVE YEARS AGO.

Included in the news columns of five years ago in the Hamlin territory were the following news briefs, taken from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated February 27, 1953:

Nearly half an inch of rain fell in the Hamlin territory first of the week to give farmers hope for crops that have been poor the past five years due to drought. This brought the year's total to .55 of an inch.

Right-of-way for the 21-mile water line from Stamford to Hamlin is being secured by Mayor B. M. Brundage. The pipeline is scheduled to be completed by May 1.

Adele Altum, who recently moved to Abilene from Hamlin, will become the bride of Ted Treider of Lazzbuddie. The wedding will be performed by the bride's brother, Rev. Alfred Altum, at Haskell Saturday.

Members of the vocational agriculture department of Hamlin High School are landscaping the school grounds as a class project.

NEARLY MISSED HER.

Two Hollywood producers were watching the star of a Las Vegas show.

"I wonder who made her dress?" asked one of them, admiring the singer's costume.

"It's hard to say," said the other, "probably the police."

Nuggets of Thought

So long as we love we serve. So long as we are loved by others we are indispensable; and no man is useless while he has a friend.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

Associate with men of good quality if you esteem your own reputation; for it is better to be alone than in bad company.—George Washington.

A man in earnest finds means, or, if he cannot find, creates them.—William E. Channing.

Mankind will be God-governed in proportion as God's government becomes apparent, the golden rule utilized, and the rights of man and the liberty of conscience held sacred.—Mary Baker Eddy.

The will of the people is the only legitimate foundation of any government, and to protect its free expansion should be our first aim.—Thomas Jefferson.

That is the most perfect government under which a wrong to the humblest is an affront to all.—Solon.

Editorial of the Week

KEEPING EDUCATION IN LINE

Henry Ford, whose skill put the automobile on a mass production basis, was a mechanic. The Wright brothers, who opened the door to the air age, were bicycle makers. Thomas A. Edison, whose numerous inventions enriched life in so many ways, was a telegraph operator at the age of 15.

These facts seem pertinent to the present tendency to put all the education emphasis on training scientists and technological experts to keep abreast of Soviet Russia in the ballistics race.

There is, of course, strong validity behind demands for expansion of the teaching of science and mathematics in our high schools and colleges. Yet we must not fall into the error of trying to measure the value of education solely in terms of the number and caliber of the missile men it produces. For the purposes of education are much broader than this. We need better scientists, yes, but also more men and women trained to use their talents in intellectual, cultural and spiritual pursuits.

Moreover, in our educational system as elsewhere, we must continue to preserve the conditions—the opportunities, the incentives and the climate of freedom—that have enabled the Fords, Wright and Edisons to put their genius to work for the progress and betterment of mankind.—Gm

Home Demonstration Club Council Approves Plans for Coming Months

Members of the Jones County Home Demonstration Council met last Wednesday in the agent's office in the courthouse at Anson with 28 members and five visitors present and all 14 clubs of the county represented.

Last year's budget was read and adopted for this year. Committees met and presented their resolutions, which were accepted.

Council Chairman Mrs. N. I. Williams cautioned all club members against anyone selling advertising and giving cookbooks, song or game books and using Home Demonstration Clubs as sponsoring them.

Women of Jones, Fisher and Haskell Counties will hold their three-county camp at Lueders on July 24 and 25, it was announced.

National Home Demonstration Club Week will be celebrated May 4 through May 10, it was also announced.

Material on "Entertaining Convalescent Children," compiled by Lou Polnac of the Tuxedo club, was passed out. Mrs. Haynes, chairman of the recreation committee, also passed out a book on home-made games.

Mrs. Jack Fuqua of the Avoca club was elected as new county THDA chairman.

Delegates elected to go to Rotan for the District 3 meeting on April 8 were Mrs. Jack Fuqua, Mrs. Frank Carter and Mrs. Elmer Joiner. Alternates were Mrs. Charlie Myatt, Mrs. C. L. Moritz and Mrs. J. B. Ray.

An invitation was extended by the Willow Creek club to meet with them at the Nugent school house on April 10 at 2:30 p. m. Dr. Styma of Abilene is giving a demonstration on making things from tin cans.

Upswing in Numbers of Livestock in Country Revealed in USDA Releases

Livestock numbers reported by the U. S. Department of Agriculture in the annual inventory released at Fort Worth this week reveal the upswing in numbers of sheep and goats, and stable numbers of cattle, in Texas reflect the improved pasture situation, points out Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald, in his weekly market summary. His release continues:

The estimate reveals that on January 1, 1958, Texas had about the same number of cattle as a year ago, the numbers of stock sheep were up five per cent to a total of 4,700,000 head. Texas goat population was up two per cent with an estimated figure of 864,000 head.

For the nation the cattle population was believed to be 93,967,000, which was about one per cent below the 94,502,000 a year earlier. Milk cows, two years old or older, totaled 22,357,000, against 22,916,000 a year earlier.

Hog numbers were estimated at 51,559,000, practically unchanged from a year ago when some 51,703,900 were on farms. Sheep were estimated at 51,559,000, up two per cent from a year ago. Stock sheep were estimated at 27,390,000, up three per cent from a year ago.

Horses and mules declined five and six per cent respectively, with a total of 3,348,000 on farms January 1, 1958.

Supplies of cattle and calves were of moderate proportions at Fort Worth and all around the major market circle Monday. Trade at Fort Worth was fully steady to strong on fed cattle, bulls and high grade slaughter calves and stockers. Plainer stockers and medium and lower grade calves and cows showed some weakness before the session was completed.

Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings cashed at $24 to $27, and common and medium offerings cleared at $16 to $24. Fat cows brought $16.50 to $18.50, and canners and cutters drew $11 to $17. Bulls sold mostly from $14 to $19, a few top quality individuals at $19.50.

Good and choice slaughter calves at $24 to $27, and common and medium offerings cashed at $17 to $23. Cull sorts cashed at $14 to $17. Medium and good stocker steer calves sold from $22 to $27.50, with few calves to $28. Heifer calves ranged from $25.75 downward. Stocker steer yearlings of medium and good quality sold from $20 to $25.50, and some choice 578-pound dehorned yearling steers in a load lot cashed at $27.

Hogs were steady to 50 cents higher at Fort Worth Monday, and sows were steady to 25 cents higher. Choice butcher hogs topped at $21.50 to $22, and equalled the best prices achieved last week. The $22 top equalled the best prices at Fort Worth since last September. Medium and good hogs sold from $17.50 to $18.25, with virtually all weights of sows getting $17.50 to $18 as the sausage makers sought supplies.

Sheep and lambs were in the largest supply in some months at Fort Worth Monday, and packers were burdened with heavy supplies of direct and prices turned downward. Prices ranged from barely steady to as much as $1 lower, with heavy lambs and yearlings scaling above 100 pounds under the most severe pressure. Half-fat and rough quality offerings shared the long end of the drop along with the heavyweights. Small numbers of good feeders were the principal factor in relatively quiet trade on those types.

Good and choice slaughter lambs cashed at $21 to $23.50, the higher figure on lambs with No. 1 or fall shorn pelts. A few choice milk lambs cashed at $24. A few woolled old crop lambs sold around $22.50 down. Yearling muttons weighing 110 pounds and with No. 1 pelts sold for $20.50. A few aged slaughter ewes sold from $9 to $10. Slaughter goats cashed at $7 to $7.50. A few small lots of medium to fairly good feeder lambs cashed at $19 to $21.50.

Market observers at Fort Worth considered the setback in price in heavyweight lambs and yearlings in the Monday trade a forerunner of things to come as the season advances. Topping out the heavier lambs and marketing them now will probably be profitable, since ordinarily lambs which weigh above 105 pounds are discounted considerably under the more desirable weights of 85 to 100 pounds of yearling lambs.

Easter is early—April 6 this year—and old crop lambs in many cases were fairly heavy before going into pastures and fields. Some of these are already appearing that weigh over 130 pounds, which packers say is far too heavy to bring top carcass prices.

PRIDE FOR PARENT.

Three boys were boasting about the earning capacity of their fathers.

The first said: "My father can write a few lines and call it poetry and sell it for $10."

"My father," said the second, "can draw a few lines, add a few dots and call it music. He sells it for $25."

The third scoffed at the others, saying, "That's nothing! My father is a preacher. He can write a few lines, say them in church, and it takes six men to carry the money down the aisles."

Internal Revenue Tax Agency Renamed

Five years ago the nation's tax collecting agency had its official name changed from the Bureau of Internal Revenue to the Internal Revenue Service.

"Today," says A. E. Fogle Jr., group supervisor of the Internal Revenue Service at Abilene, "the proper name—the Internal Revenue Service—should be used on checks for tax payments and for other communications."

Freight Carloadings For Santa Fe Decline

Freight carloadings for the Santa Fe Railway System for the week ending February 15, 1958, were 20,571 compared with 22,718 for the same week a year ago, reflecting a decline. Cars received from connections totaled 9,814 compared with 11,995 for the same week in 1957.

Total cars moved were 30,385 compared with 34,713 for the same week a year ago. Santa Fe handled a total of 30,535 cars in the preceding week this year.

NOTICED THINGS.

A group of third graders visited the art museum for the first time. There they saw a French eighteenth century drawing room correct in every detail. The teacher asked them later what about this room impressed them most.

Said one little girl: "No television."

Leon Thurman Makes Formal Statement on Representative Race

Leon Thurman, who recently announced as a candidate for the office of state representative, presents the following formal statement:

To the citizens of the 85th Representative District of Texas:

I am announcing my candidacy for representative of the 85th District of Texas, which includes Jones, Stonewall, Dickens and King Counties.

To those who do not know me, I would like to give you something of my background: I have lived most of my life in Jones County, with only a few years out to serve by country in World War II. I was reared on a farm between Stamford and Anson. I am 42 years of age. My wife is the former Geneva Albritton of Hamlin. We have two children, a boy 11 and a girl eight.

I finished high school in Anson and have a BBA degree from Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene. I studied law and in 1956, was admitted to practice, having passed the bar examination. I am now a practicing attorney.

At the present time I am serving as district clerk of Jones County. The people of Jones County have been very kind to me in letting me have the opportunity to serve them in this capacity, and now I am asking them for a promotion—that is, to elect me their state representative.

I have tried to be active in all civic organizations in my community. I have served as worshipful master of the local Masonic Lodge; served as district deputy grand master; served as president of the local Lions Club; served as commander of the American Legion; and as president of the Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church. At present I am president of the board of trustees of Anson General Hospital.

All of my family attend the First Baptist Church in Anson, of which I am a deacon.

If the people of the 85th Representative District of Texas see fit to elect me their representative I will try to be fair and impartial in all of my dealings. I will try to look after the interests of all the people of Texas, more especially the people of the 85th District. In all issues I believe there should be some study given to the people of this district. The people are entitled to the best government possible, and it is my intention, if elected, to give them the best.

HEART SURGERY AIDS YOUNG MAN—Four-year-old Alan Buck, shown here with Douglas B. Marshall of Houston, chairman of the 1958 Texas Heart Fund, is one of scores of children and adults whose lives have been changed by open heart operations performed by Dallas and Houston surgeons in the past two years. Young Alan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clint Buck of Houston, now has a normal life expectancy after successfully undergoing heart surgery at the Texas Medical Center in Houston. More than 350 similar instances of open heart surgery in Dallas and Houston by Texas physicians in the past two years have restored heart victims to normal or near-normal lives, according to officials of the Texas Heart Association. Contributions made to the current month-long Texas Heart Fund will be used to expand scientific research and professional education programs of the THA and the American Heart Association, as well as by Heart Association chapters in Texas for their community heart programs, it was emphasized by Heart Fund Chairman Marshall.

I will attempt to see each one personally, but knowing some will be missed, please take this as a personal solicitation of your vote and influence. And any consideration given me will be greatly appreciated.

I will at all times appreciate any comment anyone may have regarding new laws and other mat-

Fungicides Mixed With Soil Help to Control Diseases

Method of mixing fungicides in the covering soil at planting can be used as an aid for cotton seedling disease control, according to Bill Lehmborg, county agent. This information has just been released in Progress Report 2003 from the Texas Agriculture Experiment Station.

For general use, a mixture of captan, zineb and PCNB applied as a spray or dust gives best results. This mixture can be applied as a spray or dust. As a spray, five pounds of a formulation containing 15 per cent active captan, 22.5 per cent active PCNB and 22.5 per cent active zineb applied in water at the rate of 10 gallons per acre will do a good job. As a dust, 10 pounds of a formulation containing 7.5 per cent active captan, 11.5 per cent active PCNB and 13.0 per cent active zineb applied per acre is adequate.

Every effort should be made to arrange the spray nozzles or dust applicators so that the fungicides will be mixed thoroughly in the covering soil above the seed.

The fungicide covering soil method should be used in conjunction with seed treatment with an approved chemical such as ceresan 200 or paragen 15. This combination, when used with good seedbed preparation and planting procedures, will help reduce losses caused by cotton seedling disease.

MEETING OF MINDS.

Smythe—"I don't know your wife, but there was a tall, thin woman who rose and said she could not find words to express her feelings."
Browne—"That wasn't my wife."

ters that I may be able to help with.
Sincerely submitted — Leon Thurman.

Handling of Mail Provide Program At Lions Meeting

The post office department of the United States handles more than 60,000,000,000 letters every year, which is about two-thirds of all the mail of the world. This startling information was part of the presentation by a film shown at the Tuesday noon luncheon meeting of the Hamlin Lions Club at the oil mill guest house.

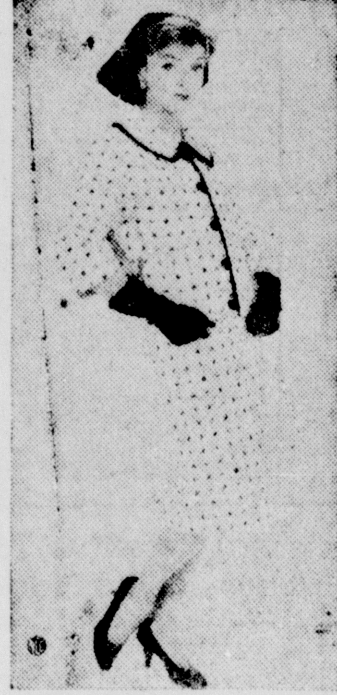

Bobby Crowley, chief dispatcher of the Hamlin post office, presented the program. The film, "Men, Mail and Machines," with Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield as spokesman, showed some of the major methods of handling mail in several of the big mail terminals of the nation, where modern machines and other equipment facilitate the movement of letters, newspapers and parcel post.

The film revealed that many of the post offices are greatly cramped for operation room and modern facilities.

Following the film, Crowley discussed and demonstrated some of the methods of dispatching mail in the Hamlin post office. He also answered questions about the post office service.

Next week's meeting of the Lions Club, it was announced by President Willard Jones, will be at the Hamlin High School cafeteria as part of the observance of Public Schools Week.

Reading Cited as Junior High Study Entertainment by

Students in the Hamlin Junior High School have been emphasizing reading in their work in recent weeks, say officials of the school.

Students in 7-B are studying a unit in reading devoted primarily to developing new reading skills and habits. The emphasis is placed not only on reading for comprehension, speed and accuracy, but on reading for enjoyment as well. In these days of television, radio, movies and other sources of entertainment, it behooves us to learn that reading still offers us a great source of entertainment.

Eighth graders have just completed a unit in reading designed to acquaint them with some of the great writers in literature. Among those studies were William Shakespeare, Rudyard Kipling, Alfred Lord Tennyson, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, Washington Irving and a score of others.

Next week the group will begin a study of the origin of the English language, or the correct word will be etymology. Thus, this study will be our theme for Public Schools Week. Since there is no end to English itself, only a continual flow into the vast ocean of all languages, and since the English language is derived from 54th Anniversary of . . .

PUBLIC SCHOOL WEEK

Will be observed in Hamlin March 3-7. You are urged to participate.

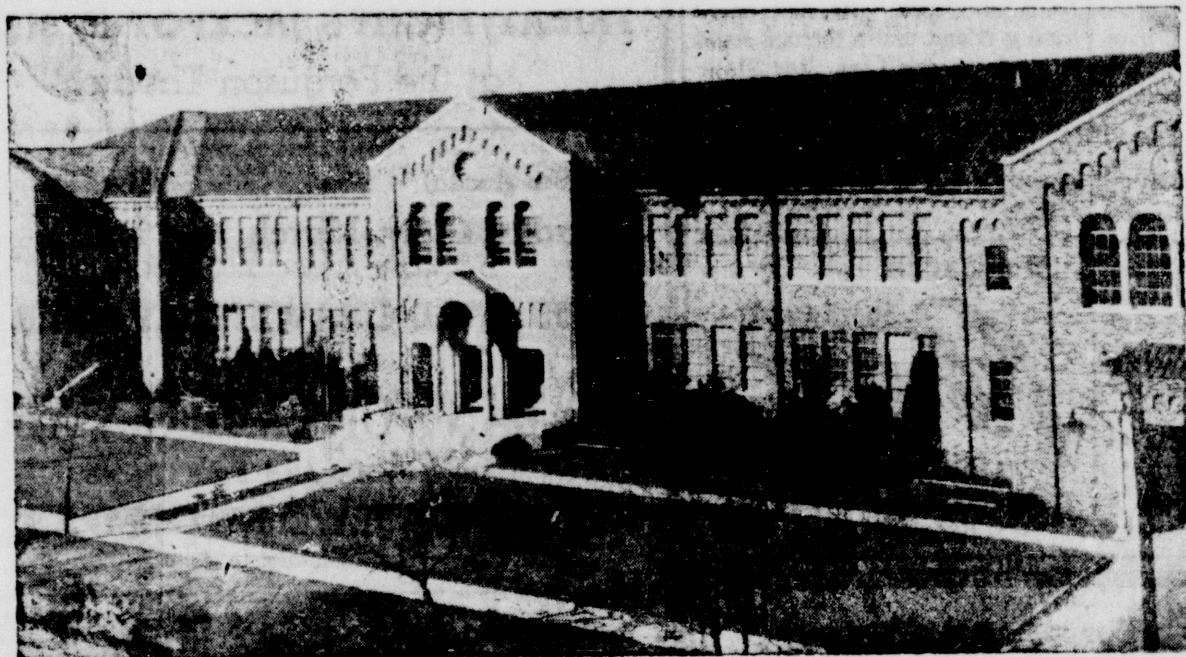

Our forefathers in their wisdom, recognizing the importance of education in the function and operation of a democracy, established the public school to make education available to all. The people of Texas declared, by the expressed terms of state constitution, "a general diffusion of knowledge being essential to the preservation of the liberties and rights of the people, it shall be the duty of the Legislature of the state to establish and make suitable provisions for the support and maintenance of an efficient system of public free schools."

All Five Hamlin Schools Will Be Open for Inspection on Thursday Evening from 6:00 to 7:30 p. m.

Following the open house, a special program will be presented under the direction of the Parent-Teacher Association beginning at 8:00 p. m. Thursday, March 6, at the Hamlin High School auditorium. School bands will be featured in a musical program, and brief talks will be made. Veteran school employees will be presented service pins. At the DePriest Colored School a program will be presented also at 2:00 p. m. Friday featuring the band and choral groups. Everybody is invited to visit the various schools and attend the programs that will point up the schools' part in the community.

The 1854 School Law provided for the first public school system in Texas. As the years passed our laws were strengthened to make sure that all children of a school age shared in this opportunity for public education. Today the importance of education is not a debatable subject.

By visiting the schools and familiarizing ourselves with the problems of teachers and students, we become more competent to safeguard and advance the institution that is so American—the public free school.

James W. Chandler Passes at Age 93 After Long Illness

Funeral services for James Walker Chandler, probably the oldest resident of Hamlin, were conducted Tuesday afternoon at the Hamlin Church of Christ at 8:00 o'clock. He was 93 years, 10 months of age.

The pioneer died Monday afternoon at 1:05 o'clock at the family residence, 229 Northwest Avenue, after an illness of more than two and one-half months.

Born April 17, 1864, in Clay County, Alabama, he was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Love Chandler. He married the former Ada Florence Hallmark in Alabama on October 16, 1892. The couple moved to this section in 1919, where he engaged in farming. He also had been employed at the Celotex Corporation for 10 years. He was a member of the Church of Christ. Officiating at the final rites were Austin Siburt, minister of the Hamlin Church of Christ, and Bruce Proctor, minister of the Grape Street Church of Christ in Abilene.

Producers Paid $5.87 For Milk in January

Minimum uniform price paid for .04 per cent milk received by Central West Texas handlers from producers during January was $5.87 per 100, according to an announcement by Byford W. Bain, market administrator. There are a number of producers in the area south of Hamlin.

Daily receipts of milk from producers during January were .43 per cent less than during December but were 5.06 per cent above the amount received during January, 1957.

Cemetery under the direction of Hamlin Funeral Home. Pallbearers were A. J. Hallmark, Elmer Terrell, Bob Tegart, L. V. Miller, Charlie Lee Adams and Bruce Hallmark.

Surviving the pioneer are his wife, Mrs. Florence Chandler of Hamlin; three daughters, Mrs. J. C. Jordan of Beaumont, California, Mrs. E. A. Preston of Hamlin and Mrs. R. P. Hillin of Amarillo; eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

John V. Howard Named President By Rotary Club

John V. Howard, Hamlin grocer, was elected president of the Hamlin Rotary Club for the new fiscal year beginning July 1, when members of that club met last Wednesday noon in their weekly luncheon session at the oil mill guest house.

Other new officers elected were: Gene Previtt, who becomes vice president; and Tommy Davis, secretary-treasurer. Rev. Edmund Robb was elected a director. Hold-over directors are Earl Smith, R. L. McClung and C. F. Cook.

Special announcement was given the annual district conference, to be held at Mineral Wells on March 9 and 10.

Eudora Hawkins of the public service department of West Texas Utilities Company headquarters at Abilene, gave a program on "Living Better Electrically." She showed slides that gave previews of phenomenal electrical appliances of the future, including electronic dirt collectors, waterless laundries, cordless lamps and luminescent panels for homes.

She pointed out that the United States generates and uses more electricity than the next seven countries of the world combined.

R. L. McClung was named chairman of an arrangements committee for a proposed Farmers Day, to be sponsored by the Rotary Club in March or April.

Rev. Calvin Bailey made an announcement about the Hamlin-for-Christ Day, staged Sunday.

Besides Miss Hawkins and Rev. Bailey, other guests at the Wednesday luncheon included Bill Nesbitt of Snyder, W. M. Blackburn of Stamford, J. W. McDaniell of Abilene, Rev. Miles B. Hays of Ardmore, Oklahoma, Stanley Wilson of Abilene, Ned Moore, and Lanier Foster, Junior Rotarian for February.

Jim H. King Attends Insurance Clinic

Cedric Burgher, president of United Fidelity Life Insurance Company of Dallas, has announced the first of a series of agents' schools was completed Friday. This school was for one full week and was conducted by W. W. Deason and R. C. Braun, agency supervisors for the company.

Major subjects covered were current trends in life insurance needs as well as advanced underwriting techniques for the modern planning of life insurance estates. Jim King attended from Hamlin.

JAMES GARNER (center), "Maverick" himself, is seen in his first starring big screen role in Warner Bros. "Davy's Rangers," a thrilling action drama of World War II, which plays Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at the Ferguson Theater. The film, produced by Martin Rackin and directed by William A. Wellman, also stars Etchika Choureau and Jack Warden.

Cotton Growers Find Encouragement In Decline of Carry-Over of Staple

Cotton growers of the Hamlin territory as well as those of the rest of the Cotton Belt will find encouragement in the announcement that the supply of cotton in the United States during the 1957-58 marketing year is estimated at about 23,000,000 bales. This is 4,600,000 bales smaller than the record of last year and the smallest supply since 1953-54.

The carry-over at the end of the present marketing year, August 1, 1958, is expected to be around 9,000,000 bales, according to John G. McHaney, extension economist. This is the smallest since 1953 and 5,700,000 bales below the record high of 1956 and 2,000,000 smaller than that on August 1, 1957.

Disappearance of cotton during the present season is estimated at about 14,100,000 bales, says McHaney. This is 2,100,000 bales smaller than the 16,200,000 bales last year.

In 1956-57 domestic mill consumption of cotton declined to 9,200,000 bales the previous season and it is estimated that this year's figure will be about the same, points out the economist. So mill consumption will probably be the smallest since 1953-54. Exports during the 1957-58 marketing year are expected to be about 5,500,000 bales—more than 2,000,000 bales below the high exports of 1956-57, McHaney says. This compares with the 1935-39 average of about 5,300,000 bales.

As of November 8, 1957, continues the economist, the U. S.

government had allotted about $254,000,000 to finance cotton exports for the year ending June 30, 1958. If completely used, these funds will finance the export of about 1,700,000 bales, as compared with exports of about 2,700,000 financed with $406,000,000 last year. However, he adds, additional funds may be made available before the end of the current fiscal year.

In 1957, farmers produced an estimated 11,700,000 running bales from the smallest acreage since 1878 and allotments during 1958 are 37,006 acres smaller than the 1957 allotment. Meanwhile, man-made fiber consumption increases annually, concludes the economist.

LEARN BY DOING.

For more than half a century Texas 4-H Club members have been learning to do by doing. While their programs of demonstrations and activities have been changed with the times, the basic principle of uniting Head, Heart, Hands and Health for the betterment of their homes, schools, churches and communities has remained a major objective of the 4-H organization. March 1-8 is National 4-H Club Week.

Clint Walker Stars In Western Film at Ferguson Theater

One of the great success stories of Hollywood during the recent years has been the sudden rise to fame of Clint Walker, who came out of relative obscurity to become the top Western star on television in Warner Brothers highly rated "Cheyenne" series. Walker will be seen starring in Warner's "Fort Dobbs" Sunday and Monday at the Ferguson Theater.

In September, 1955, Warner Brothers launched the "Cheyenne" series with Walker in the starring and title role. The show was an immediate success with the public. It zoomed to the top of the ratings and has stayed there, beating out all opposition week after week.

As a result of his tremendous pulling power on television, Walker was awarded by Jack L. Warner the starring role in Warner Brothers' "Fort Dobbs," marking his debut in a motion picture feature production.

Walker, who stands six feet six inches, weighs 235 pounds and looks every inch a Western hero, was a gun-totin' deputy sheriff, Texas cowhand, sailor and silver prospector before he hit the jackpot as an actor. In November, 1950, finding prospects in his native Alton, Illinois, for a career almost nil, Walker packed his family and headed for the oil fields of Texas. He had heard from a friend that a fortune could be made in the Lone Star State, especially around the town of Brownwood. In 1952 the family moved to Long Beach, California, where he got a job as a deputy sheriff.
